KaleidoScope

From the Principal

Scopus has taken a significant step forward into the twenty-first century this term, with the introduction of electronic whiteboards throughout the school. At present most classrooms in the Smorgon Family Primary School, each faculty in the Secondary School and selected year groups at Gandel Besen House and Fink Karp Ivany campus have been fitted with this technology, with more to come later in the year.

Electronic whiteboards enable teachers to present information using charts, pictures, interactive websites and video. Lessons can be saved, referred back to, and emailed to students. They represent a vast suite of tools to make the teaching and learning process more engaging and hence more effective. Already, after a short while, the impact of the whiteboards has been tremendous and many teachers wonder how they ever managed without one.

Over the next two years we plan to develop the wireless network throughout all campuses, for use by teachers and students. The College intranet will be developed to be the portal through which teachers and students can provide and access curriculum documentation, homework and all relevant information.

Technology must be our servant and not our master, but with the aid of our recent and future innovations, we can use it to transform teaching and learning and to prepare our students, and the College itself, for the future.

Rabbi James Kennard
Principal

2007 VCE success

Mazal Tov to the Class of 2007 on their excellent VCE results. Kol HaKavod to duxes Yonatan Cukierman and Dean Rosenberg who both achieved perfect scores of 99.95.

- 100% pass rate
- 9% of Scopus students in the top 1% - scores of 99+
- 35% in the top 5% - scores of 95+
- 48% in the top 10% - scores of 90+
- 15 perfect study scores (50/50)

Our students selected diverse courses. Management and Commerce courses continue to be popular, together with Society and Culture (Arts) based courses, while 30% of students were offered positions in double degrees.

Monash University continues to be the most popular destination for our students, although there has been increasing interest in The University of Melbourne and Deakin University. TAFE institutions have also increased in popularity.

OFFERS BY COURSE TYPE

Radio 3MS

GABI SHULMAN, ISABELLE HOFFMAN AND DAVID SCHNALL ON THE AIR

Radio 3MS (Mount Scopus) is back on the air.

Now located in the Merkaz (Centre for Informal Jewish Education), Radio 3MS was re-launched earlier this term.

Scopus' student radio began broadcasting many years ago, but fell victim to competing demands on students' time in recent years.

In 2006, renewed interest by Daniel Teitelbaum ('06) and Joel Gory ('07) saw fundraising drives to purchase new equipment and last year the College was able to acquire a professional mixing desk, amplifier, 4 outdoor speakers, headphones and microphones. We thank Old Collegians Michael Jankie ('98) and Ben Simon ('97) from Event Equipment for their help with securing this equipment.

Radio 3MS can be heard most lunchtimes in the Secondary Quad, with programs hosted by students from all levels. Some shows have themes centered around sport, Israel or particular music the genre, while others are more general. With over 40 students currently undertaking training in technical production and learning how to prepare a playlist and radio show, students are eager to be involved as both on-air presenters and in production roles.

Scopus celebrates

With Purim falling on Good Friday this year, the College held Purim style celebrations on Rosh Chodesh Adar II. The day started with traditional fancy dress parades at each campus and went on to include Megillah readings, a lunchtime carnival, and an afternoon concert featuring the Tel Aviv Scouts Entertainment Troupe.

Saving water

GROUNDS MANAGER NATHAN TOVEY IN FRONT OF THE NEW 9000 LITRE WATER TANKS

The College has implemented a Water Management Plan to help reduce its water usage both internally and externally.

Internally, waterless urinals have been installed, along with flow control valves on all sinks to slow the flow of water when taps are turned on.

Externally, SDI (subsurface drip irrigation) has been introduced, water tanks installed, and more native landscapes planted. The largest project to date has been the resurfacing of the Skolnik oval on the Gandel Campus, replacing the old 'cool season' grass with a more hardy 'warm season' grass. This will provide a more consistent playing surface year round and reduce water usage by 20%.

Further water saving initiatives will be undertaken in the future to ensure the College continues to operate in an environmentally responsible manner.

Pedal power

Primary students have taken the catch cry 'On Ya Bike' literally. With the introduction of our new Bike Education program, all students in Years 4 to 6 are improving their cycling skills and learning important road safety rules.

With the assistance of the Parents' Association, the College purchased 54 new bikes, helmets and fluoro safety vests.

YEAR 6 STUDENTS RAFI WOOD, JARRED STEINBERG, JONATHAN LEIBEL AND NATALIE HAYMAN

In preparation for the mountain bike ride on their Year 6 camp, students were involved in weekly riding lessons around the Gandel Campus in Burwood and beyond.

PE staff completed a VicRoads Bike Ed course, designed to assist teachers in developing a bike curriculum for primary aged students. While most students participate in weekly riding lessons, students who require extra tuition work with staff on a one-on-one basis.

The greater self esteem and increased confidence in students is already evident as they become real risk takers and learn to co-operate as a group.

Young Scholars

Congratulations to Year 12 students Brett Shandler and Jarin Herson and Year 11 students Jeremy Davis and Sarah Braun, who received Kwong Lee Dow Young Scholars Awards from The University of Melbourne.

The Scholars Program is an academic enrichment program designed to support high-achieving Victorian secondary school students. The program offers numerous opportunities for students to interact with The University of Melbourne and each other, with substantial benefits for students who subsequently enrol at The University of Melbourne. Students are selected on the basis of academic merit and community involvement.

International speakers

Year 11 students came face-to-face with some controversial issues and dilemmas at the annual Kehilati conference at the end of last year.

The international speakers, including Tuvia Book from Israel (via the USA), Prof Giora Titens from Israel and Clare Hedwat from the UK came to Australia especially to participate in our Year 11 conference. Topics ranged from 'The Ethics of War', and 'Climate Change - A Jewish View' to 'The Jews of Uganda'. The Great Debate on day 1 of the conference was titled 'Do I have to believe in G-d to be Jewish?'

The Year 11 Conference strives to expose students to a range of ideas and speakers who will have an influence on their lives long after they leave school.

From the serious and sensational to the lighthearted and entertaining, students selected from an extensive list of sessions, all held at Deakin University, adjacent to the College.

Keynote speaker and recently appointed Director of Public Prosecutions, Mr Jeremy Rapke QC opened the conference, while a host of local and international presenters tackled topics including; 'Jews who rock!', 'Israel in our Hearts and Minds', 'Orthodox Feminism' and 'John Safran vs G-d'.

Director of Jewish Studies, Avi Cohen said, "The combination of presenters, many world leaders in their field, ensured a truly diverse, simulating and thought provoking three days for our Year 11 students. I don't believe there is anything like it, offered to so many students, anywhere else."

Israel Club

KAREN FREILICH, MICHAEL THURIN, MR PHILLIP FOXMAN (PRESIDENT, CLEAN UP ISRAEL), BRETT SACKS, JAY LAMBERT AND MR ELJ HADAR (GENERAL MANAGER, CLEAN UP ISRAEL).

Our 70 Ulpan students were so inspired by their Israel experience over the summer, they were determined to bring a piece of Israel back to school with the launch of the weekly Israel Club.

Initiated and run entirely by the Year 11 Ulpan students, Israel Club meets every Tuesday lunchtime and provides all secondary students with an avenue for discussions, presentations and events centred on Israeli culture, current affairs and history. A number of Tzedakah activities are also planned to raise money for Israeli charities.

Student Michael Thurin explains, "After our amazing Israel experience we wanted to bring some part of Israel back to school".

The first Israel Club got off to a flying start with guest speaker Phillip Foxman, President of Clean Up Israel. He spoke about the growth of Clean Up Israel Day which today involves over 40,000 volunteers at numerous sites. His talk was especially inspiring for the Ulpan students who had assisted with a Clean Up Israel day in Ashdod, south of Tel Aviv, when they were on Ulpan.

Israel Club is certainly off to a good start and judging by the enthusiasm of students – it even has its own Facebook group – Israel Club is the place to be each Tuesday.

Reading is a WRAP

Students at Gandel Besen House and Fink Karp Ivany campus have been speaking a new language over the last year: the language of WRAP. The Writing Approach programme (WRAP) is a way of learning reading and spelling processes through writing.

The programme employs tried and tested approaches to literacy and is used in schools throughout Australasia and America.

The WRAP programme teaches 70 phonograms, not just 26 letters. A phonogram is a combination of letters that make up the sounds we use in English. Phonograms are printed on cards and presented in a multi sensory way where children hear, say, see and write them every day.

The children no longer learn the alphabet is only 'A' as in apple', 'B as in ball'. Now they learn that the letter 'A' has three separate sounds: 'a' as in 'at', 'a' as in 'cake' and 'ah' as in 'father'.

By forming connections between written and spoken language, children are being taught the 'rules' of English that assist them with cracking the code of reading.

Reading simply for the love of it, being read to and reading and sharing literature with others are keys to the rich English programme at Scopus.

Parents' Association

ROZ DE BORTOLI, SUSANNAH SWIATLO, RON DELEZIO AND LANA SHEEZEL

The annual Summer Brunch convened by Lana Sheezel and Susannah Swiatlo was an outstanding success with over 270 guests enjoying a perfect day at the home of hosts Roz and Carlo De Bortoli. Guests were inspired by speaker Ron Delezio, father of Sophie Delezio, the little girl who survived horrific burns in an accident at a childcare centre and then suffered further injuries after being hit by a car in a second accident. Ron was the 2006 Australian Father of the Year and is now chairman of the Day of Difference Foundation. He spoke about his family's ability to triumph through adversity and his message of acceptance and understanding touched his audience deeply.

We are extremely grateful to our sponsors Roz and Carlo De Bortoli, pokernews.com, Harts Party Hire, Momentum, House, Kay and Burton, BDO Kendalls, Bevilles, Bond Street

Dental Studio, Cardiac Science, Handcrafted Flowers, Melbourne Luxury Transfers and Tours, Nice Pak Products, Patterson Lakes Marina, Pratt Foundation, Print Dynamics, seek.com.au, Spotlight, Studio Italia, Grant and Sharyn Saffer, Heather and Trevor Cohen, Lisa and Justin Liberman and Roslyn and David Smorgon and family, Generation Investments Pty Ltd.

Together with their exceptional committee, Maxine Bechler, Sally Bengel, Rachelle Givoni, Amy Hershman, Toby Levy, Alla Lew, Amanda Smorgon, Linda Spitalnic and Nicole Zuchowski, Lana and Susannah prepared a superb brunch and raised a record amount.

2007 was another outstanding fundraising year for the Mount Scopus Memorial College Parents' Association, with over $256,000 raised for the College. The funds raised by the Parents' Association were divided between new smart boards at all campuses, a needs-based scholarship and individual items at each campus, from elite sporting programmes and mobile score-boards to class-sets of bicycles and portable audio systems.

Mount Scopus honours Roslyn Smorgon

Mount Scopus College has lost one of its most passionate and generous ambassadors with the passing of Roslyn Smorgon AM, Old Collegian '67.

We particularly remember her incredible dedication and impact in various roles over many years: Mothers' Club President, convenor and generous hostess for fundraising events, Annual Appeal Chairman and Co-Chair of the Jubilee Program. She had been an active member of the College Executive, a respected Life Governor, and since 1996, enhanced the Foundation Executive.

To honour Roslyn's legacy and memory, Mount Scopus College will proudly, henceforth, dedicate its Outreach Program as the 'Roslyn Smorgon Outreach Program'.

The Outreach Program trains our Year 11 students to become ambassadors for Judaism and Israel. Given Roslyn's love for Jewish life and Israel, together with her own qualities of leadership and communication, the College leadership felt that dedicating this program in her honour would be a most fitting tribute.

Her memory and legacy will truly be a blessing and inspiration, not just at Scopus, but at the many organisations who were the fortunate beneficiaries of her involvement.

TRIBUTE FROM ROY TASHI OAM...

With the passing of Roslyn Smorgon we have all lost a loyal friend and role model. My respect and admiration for Roslyn flourished over some 25 years of various communal activities. Our closest times were spent working together for Mount Scopus College.

Roslyn's passion, commitment and dedication to the many causes in which she immersed herself was inspiring and contagious. She was driven in all that she did by the strong desire to make a better world for everyone. She truly did make a difference.

I am confident that Roslyn has left a legacy that is an enduring inspiration for us to continue the good work that she did not get the opportunity to complete.

Old Collegians 1960-1970

In the lead-up to the College's Diamond Jubilee year in 2009 we are trying to get our database up-to-date and correct, so we can invite you to year-appropriate events.

Unfortunately we are missing some details for students who started between 1960-1970. If you attended Mount Scopus in those years, we would appreciate your assistance to help us update our records.

Please email the following information – Surname (current and former), First Name, Date of Birth, Year/grade you started at Scopus, Year/grade you left – to our Database Officer, Jenny Stosser at jstosser@scopus.vic.edu.au
